3.0 Third-party Advocates

Holders may retain third-party advocates ("Advocates") to assist them in the examination process. The retention of an Advocate is no basis to delay the commencement of the State's examination, and the State will not delay the examination so that the Advocate may conduct a review or examination of the Holder's books and records in advance of the State's examination. The State will cooperate with the Holder and its Advocate and keep both of them apprised of the records requests, interviews and the progress of the examination in general. The State will not examine or otherwise be limited to a review of work papers, compilations or record summaries prepared by the Holder or the Advocate but shall have access to such of the Holder's original books and records necessary to ascertain the Holder's compliance with the Delaware Unclaimed Property Law. The State shall direct its requests and communications to the Holder and, if requested by the Holder, will also direct copies to the Advocate.
